

Design a Potato Book Character

To celebrate 'Book Week' All Saints School Association will be holding a 'Design a Potato Book Character' competition on

Monday 23rd March 2020

Using any potato that you have at home and using as much creativeness as possible, turn it into a book character of your choice!!

You may use a range of materials to design your potato including googly eyes, pipe cleaners, paint etc.

Your designed potato must be brought into school on Monday 23rd March and be clearly labelled with your name and class.

To enter it is 50p per potato entry

There will be winners selected from each class.

Prizes to be confirmed!!
